EECERA (September 2010). Documentation of the 20th EECERA annual conference, Birmingham, UK. The conference dealt with the issue of “voice” in ECE research, focusing on three basic questions: “Who knows? Who speaks? Who listens?”. Our intent was to put a focus on the voice of men in ECE. Colleagues from Austria, Denmark, Germany and Norway contributed to the symposia, which were chaired by Jan Peeters from Belgium and Tim Rohrmann from Germany. Abstracts and most presentations can be downloaded below.

EECERA (September 2011). Documentation of the 21th EECERA annual conference, Geneva, Switzerland. The Coordination office initiated two self-organized symposia, chaired by Dr. Tim Rohrmann, with presentations of research from Denmark, Germany, Norway and Spain. The first symposium focused on gender in peer- and adult-child-relations in ECEC, including recent research about differences between male and female ECE workers. A second symposium on “More men in ECE” reflected strategies towards a gender-balanced work force.
